Navigating the Healthcare Waters- Facing the Waves of Change in Hospice and Palliative Care

LEXINGTON, KY

PALMETTO GBA POST-CONFERENCE: AUGUST 23 at Bluegrass Care Navigators
CONFERENCE OVERVIEW

Working in the healthcare industry means a constantly changing environment where the key to survival is adaptation. Hospices must face these challenges while still being able to provide quality end of life care, and at the same time, develop new and innovative practices and programs in order to maintain sustainability. Being able to navigate through the healthcare waters safely means that hospices will continue to serve patients and families who deserve much needed palliative services.

Though change can be difficult, hospices must face the challenge of constant change while simultaneously continuing to develop their expertise to achieve excellence. Even though we are past the time of the Covid pandemic, healthcare has to continuously make adjustments from regulations to best practices. Change is something we should embrace and not fear, for it can lead to great improvements and efficiencies in the care that we provide. The 2023 KAHPC conference will cover a full range of engaging topics and speakers to assist clinicians and administrators with what is going on in and around the hospice and palliative care industry.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

After completing this conference, participants will be able to:

• Develop modern strategies to maintain successful palliative care and hospice programs
• Practice effective clinical interventions to improve patient care experiences
• Prepare for the ever-changing healthcare environment from the regulatory perspective
• Apply holistic care techniques and strategies that enhance end of life outcomes
• Employ better management skills and marketing strategies

Erin is a member of the firm’s Hospice & Palliative Care Team, which collectively has over 25 years of experience working with hospice and palliative care providers across the country. Erin is dedicated to working collaboratively with clients to address their needs in an ever-changing, highly regulated industry. Her practice ranges from providing quick answers to immediate day-to-day operational questions to larger, more complex compliance issues. Erin and the Hospice & Palliative Care Team routinely guide hospice providers throughout all phases of government surveys, from strategizing and preparing plans of correction to interfacing with surveyors, as well as audits, including analysis of and response to alleged clinical, technical and statistical errors.

Hospice and palliative care clients also value Erin’s research skills, and her experience drafting and reviewing a wide range of contracts, such as inpatient services agreements, medical director agreements and palliative care consulting agreements, among others. Whether Erin is answering a 15-minute question or navigating a sophisticated Unified Program Integrity Contractor (UPIC) audit, she is deeply passionate about supporting hospice and palliative care providers, along with the dedicated physicians, nurses and clinical social workers who serve and comfort patients and families at their most vulnerable.

Palmetto GBA is pleased to announce our 2023 Hospice Workshop series, titled “Medicare Hospice: What to See in 2023”. These workshops are designed to equip hospice providers with the tools they need to be successful in Medicare billing, coverage and documentation requirements.

These workshops will provide insight for hospice agency staff at all levels. However, we do suggest that providers who are new to Medicare, or have new staff, attend our online learning courses for beginners at www.PalmettoGBA.com/hhh. Basic billing and other online educational resources can be found by accessing the Events and Education topic at the top of the page.

Errors in billing and responding to additional documentation requests can be costly. During the workshop series, Palmetto GBA will provide information related to the most common errors and why these errors occur. We will also provide tips to avoid these errors. Palmetto GBA’s goal is to educate providers on the most up-to-date information and apply skillful techniques to their documentation and billing practices.

The following topics will be covered during the workshop:
