The Heart of Compassion: Evolving Care with Love and Purpose

CONFERENCE OVERVIEW

Join more than 200 professionals from across the Commonwealth for the 2025 Kentucky Association of Hospice and Palliative Care (KAHPC) Annual Conference—a three-day gathering dedicated to advancing excellence in end-of-life care. This year's event will bring together clinicians, administrators, and thought leaders to explore the latest in clinical practices, regulatory updates, and innovative strategies that support compassionate, high-quality care.

As the healthcare landscape continues to evolve, hospice and palliative care providers must remain responsive—adapting not only clinical approaches but also grief support services and operational models to address emerging needs.

The 2025 KAHPC Conference will present an inspiring mix of expert speakers and thought-provoking sessions aimed at empowering professionals in hospice and palliative care. Whether your focus is on improving patient experiences, building organizational resilience, or exploring innovative care models, this year's event offers a meaningful platform to exchange ideas, gain practical knowledge, and strengthen your impact in the field.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

After completing this conference, participants will be able to:

- Develop modern strategies to maintain successful palliative care and hospice programs
- Practice effective clinical interventions to improve patient care experiences
- Prepare for the ever-changing healthcare environment from the regulatory perspective
- Apply holistic care techniques and strategies that enhance end-of-life outcomes
- Employ better management skills and marketing strategies

Whole-body donation plays a vital role in medical innovation and education by providing hands on experience to healthcare providers and other medical professionals.
